

2019 Water@UW-Madison Symposium

Water and the Wisconsin Idea

Timeslot	Speaker	Affiliation	Talk Title
8:30AM - Welcome
8:30	Jake Vander Zanden	Chair, Water@UW-Madison
	Chancellor Rebecca Blank	Chancellor, UW-Madison
	Lt. Gov. Mandela Barnes (via video message)	Lieutenant Governor, State of Wisconsin
8:50AM - Safe Drinking Water
8:50	LEAD: Kerry Schumann	Executive Director, Wisconsin Conservation Voters	Overview of Wisconsin Drinking Water Problems
9:00	Ken Bradbury	State Geologist and Director, Wisconsin Geological and Natural History Survey	Growing Crops versus Growing Houses: Impacts on Groundwater Quality Beneath a Rural Subdivision
	Matthew Ginder-Vogel	Assistant Professor, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering	Trends in Wisconsin Groundwater Radium Concentration
	Joe Grande	Water Quality Manager, Madison Water Utility	PFAS Testing: The Need for Standardization
	Mike Olson	Program Director, National Atmospheric Deposition Program	Advancing the Understanding of Atmospheric Deposition Chemistry and Impacts Locally, Nationally, and Globally
	Mark Borchardt	Research Microbiologist, USDA – Agricultural Research Service	Land Use and Risk of Private Well Contamination in Kewaunee County, Wisconsin
9:30AM - Networking Break
9:50AM - Water and Environmental Change
9:50	LEAD: Todd Ambs	Assistant Deputy Secretary, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources	Year of Clean Drinking Water
10:00	Hilary Dugan	Assistant Professor, Department of Integrative Biology	Fresh Water is the Best Water
	Matt Ruark	Associate Professor, Department of Soil Science and UW-Extension	Discovery Farms, the Wisconsin Idea, and 125 Site-Years of Edge-of-Field Runoff
	Dan Wright	Assistant Professor, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering	Flood Resiliency Lessons From a Wet Hot Wisconsin Summer
	Jeanne Scherer	Outreach Specialist, Aquatic Invasive Species Program, UW-Extension	The Wisconsin Aquatic Invasive Species Partnership
	Jordan Read	Chief, Data Science Branch, Water Resources Mission Area, USGS	Wisconsin Lakes in a Warmer Future
10:30AM - Networking Break
10:50AM - Water Policy and Justice
10:50	LEAD: Kimberlee Wright	Executive Director, Midwest Environmental Advocates	The Role of the Public in Effective Water Policy

2019 Water@UW-Madison Symposium

Water and the Wisconsin Idea

Timeslot	Speaker	Affiliation	Talk Title
11:00	Leah Horowitz	Assistant Professor, Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies and School of Human Ecology	Water Justice: Indigenous People's Engagements with Industry, from New Caledonia to the U.S. Midwest
	Richard Monette	Professor, Law School	Public Trust and Police Powers: A Sea Change for Wisconsin and Native Nations
	Paul McGinley	Director, Center for Watershed Science and Education, UW-Extension	Learning from the Geochemistry of the Water in Private Wells
	Ken Genskow	Professor and Extension Specialist, Department of Planning and Landscape Architecture	Extension Engagement in Water Equity
	Adena Rissman	Associate Professor, Department of Forest and Wildlife Ecology, UW-Madison	Adaptations to Extreme Storms by County Conservationists
11:30AM - Networking Break
11:50AM - Water and Wisconsin Life
11:50	LEAD: Anne Sayers	Deputy Secretary, Wisconsin Department of Tourism	Wisconsin Water as a Creativity-Inspiring, Culture-Defining, Economic-Driving Niche Offering
12:00	Karen McShane-Hellenbrand	Faculty Associate, Department of Dance	Dance in Action: Site-Specific Dance Performance Raising Awareness Through Artistic Activism and Environmental Education
	Caroline Gottschalk Drushke	Assistant Professor, Department of English	Living with Floods: Blending Research, Teaching, and Community Engagement to Build Resilient Futures
	Dan Phaneuf	Professor, Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics	Valuing the Economic Benefits of Water Quality
	Eric Olson	Director, Lakes Program, UW-Extension	Protecting in Partnership Our Legacy of Lakes
	Sarah FitzSimons	Assistant Professor, Department of Art	Research in the Visual Arts: Water as Material, Subject, and Metaphor
	Ian Karl and Sadaf Nasir	Experiential Program Coordinator, Northwest Passage (Karl); Photographer and Poet (Nasir)	Wisconsin's Lakes and Rivers, and Youth Mental Health
12:40PM - Closing Remarks
12:40	Matthew Ginder-Vogel	Chair-Elect, Water@UW-Madison

We'd love to have your feedback! Please fill out our short (1-2 minute) survey at:
go.wisc.edu/94v7y7

